

What makes Calihan unique?

Calihan Catering is a full service caterer that is focused on providing excellent food and superb service.

Does Calihan do large and small events?

Calihan can cater events from 2– 5,000 people, we can accommodate any sized party.

Does Calihan offer food without staff?

We do not offer food without culinary staff.

Does Calihan offer drop-off services?

We currently offer “drop off” service to some of our existing corporate clients. However, because Calihan Catering is a Full Service Catering Company, we limit this service to established contractual clients who we are confident have the facilities and staff to support such a service. We would love to talk with you to determine your needs.

Where does Calihan cater?

Calihan Catering can cater almost anywhere you can imagine. If you can think it, we will create the reality.

Does Calihan offer packaged solutions?

Calihan Catering is a custom caterer and can put together almost any event you need. Please call us, or visit our inquiry form to fill out a few simple questions. With this information our team of experienced sales staff can help to put together the event you need.

Do you have wedding packages available?

We are a custom caterer and craft every wedding menu to each specific client. Please call us, or visit our inquiry form to fill out a few simple questions. With this information our team of experienced sales staff can help to put together the perfect wedding.

Does Calihan create wedding cakes?

Calihan Catering does not create its own wedding cakes, but we can suggest several bakeries to create the cake of your dreams.

What dining options are available for Daily Contractual Dining?

Contractual dining is a relationship that is built between your company and Calihan Catering. We provide the staffing and food to handle your daily catering needs from continental breakfasts to luncheon budgets to cocktail receptions. We work with you, becoming part of your team, to portray the most professional atmosphere for entertaining clients or treating your associates. In addition, we allow you to focus on what you do best and not have to worry about catering.

How do I get to Calihan?

Calihan Catering is located 833 West Haines Street in Chicago, IL. We are one block west of Halsted Street and one block south of Division Street.

Is parking available?

Street parking is always available outside of our facility.